

No Need To Shout

Words & Music by Blackston/ King

Little girl kneeling beside her bed,
Closes her eyes and bows her head
Asking God to watch over her
And keep her family safe.
When she's done, she opened her eyes
Sees her daddy coming in just to say goodnight.
She asks her daddy "is heaven near
Or should I pray louder so God can hear?"
He smiled and he brushes her hair,
Says "Honey, there's something I'd like to share.
Something my mother used to say
About God in heaven and the prayers we pray. She'd say ...

(Chorus)

"Heavens just a prayer away,
God hears every word we say.
You don't need to scream them out.
God can hear you, there's no need to shout."

Young man standing in the pouring rain
Wishing it could wash away all his pain.
He looks to heaven and wipes away his tears, and says,
"Lord, I feel lost and I hope you can hear."
He looks down at the street
Sees the water rushing all around his feet.
It reminds him of when Jesus calmed the seas.
He prays, "Lord, please calm this storm in me."
He turns around and sees a man standing near.
The man say "Son, I tell you God can surely hear.
And there's one more thing I'd like to say
About God in heaven and the prayers we pray."
(repeat chorus)

The morale of this song, you can safely say,
Is that God is with us every day.
He's always here and He's always near.
So go ahead pray, God will hear.
(repeat chorus)
